THOUGHT FOR THE WEEK-

*What is this life if, full of care,
We have no time to stand and stare.*

William Henry Davies 1871-1940

Thursday 28th September is National Poetry Day, so this week's thought is from a poem called Leisure by William Henry Davies. Here it is in full:

Leisure

What is this life if, full of care,
We have not time to stand and stare
No time to stand beneath the boughs
And stare as long as sheep or cows.

No time to see, when woods we pass,
Where squirrels hide their nuts in the grass.
No time to see, in broad daylight,
Streams full of stars, like skies at night.

No time to turn at Beauty's glance,
And watch her feet, how they dance.
No time to wait till her mouth can
Enrich that smile her eyes began.

A poor life this if, full of care,
We have no time to stand and stare

This is an excellent opportunity to see the amazing new school and its facilities, meet the teachers, and hear from the Head-teacher (at 6:15pm and 7:00pm.) There will also be tours, activities and science experiments to participate in.

Reminder

Please ensure that your child has everything that they need when they come to school in the morning- it is not always possible for the office staff to deliver items, or make phone calls, during the day!
