These are taking place next Friday (7th December). The school will be closed to children, but they may attend the meeting with you. Your child's books will be available to view before your meeting with the class teacher. Please only look at your child's work and not at other children's work. Thank you for your understanding.

The Christmas cards and gifts designed by the children will be returning to the school early next week. They will be distributed to the classes as quickly as possible. Thank you for your patience.
