

Women's Voices Matter

A free course for women; talking about issues today

Tutors:

Rabena Sharif
And Sabina Trowbridge

Course Dates:

Wednesday 27th January Until
Wednesday 23rd March

Cost:

FREE

Times: 12.30 -2.30

Venue:

Upton Lea
Community Centre
(Other courses to follow at different venues and different times)

Contact :

Sahira Tariq
07931258997

What will we be discussing and finding out about?

- Issues that affect women in Slough.
- Looking at controversial issues from a woman's perspective.
- Do we make assumptions? Use stereotypes?
- How do newspapers and television change our views?
- Understanding the role of the internet and the impact of social media.
- How can women make positive contributions in their communities?
- Are we integrated or segregated as a community in Slough?
- How to find information, help and support in Slough.

This course is designed for women to openly discuss and participate in topics in a safe environment. There will be support for English conversation and the course will raise awareness of local and national issues impacting women

Contact details:

Telephone: : 01753 554456 o r email: slough@wea.org.uk

@WEAadulted

www.facebook.com/weaadulteducation

